1. INTRODUCTION

The ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College') may offer a number of awards known as the ANU College of Business and Economics International Partnership Scholarship ('the Award').

The objectives of the Award are to support diversity, continue engagement with our recognised partner institutions and strengthen educational outcomes for students.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the ANU College of Business and Economics.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for two years' full time enrolment. The Award is paid in equal instalments after census date each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is an international student; and
- (b) has received an offer of admission to an undergraduate program offered by the College; and

- (d) has achieved at an excellent level in their final years of schooling at an approved ANU College of Business and Economics partner program and institution as determined by the CBE Selection Committee.

4. APPLICATION

There is no application as students are automatically considered based on them meeting the eligibility criteria or conditions prescribed under the Eligibility section.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria. If there are more eligible applicants than there are Awards available, preference may be given based on academic merit.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Dean, CBE (or nominee) which will also include CBE Director of Students and Learning (or nominee) and one other academic staff member of CBE.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.
