RESEARCH SCHOOL OF ACCOUNTING SOUTH EAST ASIA MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Research School of Accounting ('the RSA') within the ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College') may offer a number of awards known as the Research School of Accounting South East Asia Merit Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to support diversity and to strengthen educational outcomes for students both in terms of skills development and preparation for further study or employment.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the RSA.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for the full-time duration of the program in which the student is enrolled with the fee waiver applied towards tuition fees at the beginning of each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all the remaining tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is an international student; and
- (b) is a citizen of a country defined by The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade \(DFAT\) as South East Asia; and
- (c) has achieved at an excellent level in their final years of schooling as determined by the College Selection Committee; and
- (d) has received an offer of admission to one of the following RSA programs:
 - Bachelor of Accounting (6 semesters)
 - Master of Accounting (4 semesters)
 - Master of Professional Accounting (3 semesters)

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of academic merit.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Director of the RSA (or nominee) and will also include the College Dean (or nominee) and the Deputy Director (Education) of the RSA (or nominee).

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 24 units per semester in a program listed in Section 3. A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the College Dean (or nominee) to hold the Award on a part-time basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 5.0 or above each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required GPA in a subsequent semester they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an Award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2;
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (d) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (e) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain the Award;
- (f) if a recipient changes their program or course without permission to retain the Award;
- (g) if a recipient fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements; or
- (h) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the College Dean (or nominee) may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 7 of these Conditions of Award may be varied by the College Dean on the recommendation of the Chair of the selection committee.

13. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis. If you are receiving Centrelink benefits, student financial awards may impact your Centrelink payments.
