ANU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS TRAVEL GRANT FOR ABORIGINAL OR TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER STUDENTS

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College') may offer a number of awards known as the ANU College of Business and Economics Travel Grant for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander Students ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to support eligible Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander undergraduate students to be able to partake in the relevant travel component for the College's Australian and First Nations Business Immersion (CBEA3003) or Global Business Immersion (CBEA3066) courses.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the College.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a continuing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic student; and
- (b) identifies as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person; and
- (c) is enrolled in an undergraduate degree offered by the College; and

The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only eligible applicants will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of academic merit and the suitability of the candidate for the opportunity they applied for, based on the information provided in their Award application. Where there are more equally ranked applicants than there are Awards available, preference may be given (in order of priority) to students who:

- can demonstrate financial need;
- at the time of application for admission, resided in rural or remote area;
- are the first in their family to attend university;
- are recognised as the primary carer of a person with a disability and are registered with ANU Accessibility;
- have a long-term health condition or disability and are registered with ANU Accessibility.

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the College Associate Dean (Education) (or nominee) which will also include the College Associate Dean (Students and Industry Experience) (or nominee) and an academic staff member of the College.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 7 of these Conditions of Award may be varied by the College Dean on the recommendation of the chair of the selection committee.

13. TAXATION
