THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING & COMPUTER SCIENCE FEMALE EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Engineering & Computer Science ('the College') may offer up to twelve scholarships known as the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science Female Excellence Scholarships ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to support women studying Engineering and Computer Science disciplines at the undergraduate level who have experienced educational or other disadvantages.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is two years. The Award is paid in equal instalments after census date unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a prospective ANU student who:

- (a) identifies as female;
- (b) is a domestic student;
- (c) has completed an Australian Year 12 or IB qualification;
- (d) receives an offer of admission to an undergraduate program offered by the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science;
- (e) is eligible for and receives adjustment factors under the National Access Scheme.

4. APPLICATION

All applicants applying for admission through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System will be automatically considered for the Award based on them meeting the eligibility criteria and electing to be considered for scholarships.

Where there are no eligible direct applicants or where the pool of eligible direct applicants has been exhausted, the Award may be offered to an eligible student applying for admission via the University Admissions Centre (UAC).

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria with priority given, in the following order, to applicants with the highest severity rating of:

- financial hardship

- personal illness/disability
- severe family disruption
- excessive family responsibility
- abuse
- refugee status (where qualifies as a domestic students)
- English language difficulty
- school environment
- socio-economic indexes for areas (SEIFA)
- completed final years of schooling in a low-ICSEA school (below 900)

Where there are more eligible applicants than there are scholarships available, preference will be given to applicants who receive adjustment factors for multiple disadvantages and then, if necessary, according to ANU Selection Rank. Other factors may be taken into account where they align with the University's strategic objectives to ensure a diverse student cohort.

The Selection Committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The Selection Committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to enrol in a full-time load of (minimum 18 units per semester). A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the College of Engineering and Computer Science Associate Dean (Education) to hold the Award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 5.0 or above each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required GPA in a subsequent semester they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an Award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;
- (b) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2; or
- (c) on the date on which the recipient withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences;
- (d) if a recipient fails to enrol as required in section 8;
- (e) if a recipient changes to part-time enrolment without receiving permission to retain their Award;

- (f) if a recipient changes their program or course without permission;
- (g) if a recipient fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements;
- (h) if a recipient breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the Discipline Rule;

whichever is earliest.

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS

Subject to the information available at the time, the College Dean may request that the payment for the semester in which the breach of conditions or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. TAXATION & CENTRELINK

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.

For information on how your Award may affect your Centrelink benefits, see this website <http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/enablers/income/>

13. ACCOMMODATION

It is the recipient's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: <http://www.anu.edu.au/study/accommodation>

14. PUBLICITY

The recipient may be requested to participate in publicity for the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Award by publishing the names of the recipients. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Engineering & Computer Science or ANU Communications and Engagement (ACE).

15. CONTACT WITH THE AWARD OWNER

All enquiries regarding the Award and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:
