YUILL BURSARY TO SUPPORT ANU COLLEGE OF LAW STUDENTS CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Law may offer a number of awards known as the Yuill Bursary to support ANU College of Law students ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide financial assistance to ANU College of Law students facing financial hardship when undertaking an internship, clinic, overseas course or other initiatives offered by the ANU College of Law that are for course credit.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the Yuill Endowment, established in memory of the late Justice Gordon Yuill of the Family Court of Australia.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The Award is paid in a one-off instalment upon accepting the Award unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for organising their passport and visa (if relevant) and for covering other costs involved in travel when undertaking the internship, clinic, overseas course or other initiatives offered by the ANU College of Law.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU Scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and the answers provided in the application demonstrating financial hardship to the extent that they would be unable to undertake the ANU College of Law opportunity without the Award. Additional factors may be taken into account such as Indigenous status and prior academic achievement.

The Award is offered to a student by the ANU College of Law selection committee which is chaired by the Dean of the ANU College of Law (or nominee) and also includes two staff members of the ANU College of Law.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).
